
Team Asia

Android Interface Application

This project is designed to control a LED panel, a window blind, a light bulb, and a toy car using android application via Bluetooth. The LED panel displays users playing good-old game, Tic-Tac-Toe on their phone.

Yong Soo Byeon

- Born on February 24th, 1990, in Seoul, South Korea.
- Landed Canada July 1st, 2003 became a citizen of Canada in 2010.
- Worked for Department of National Defence as an Electronics Technician Co-op Student.
- Responsible for the construction of the LED panel and other hardware
- Designing the PCB layout for the hardware.

Gurinder Pal Singh Banwait

- Born on July 5th, 1990 in most industrial city of Punjab, Ludhiana, India.
- Studying in Canada as an International student since January 5th, 2009.
- Was appointed as Interurban Director in Camosun College Student Society.
- Developing the software for the Android interface board to connect to the hardware section of the project.
- Making gaming Android applications using JAVA.

Team Asia is a self-motivated project group and puts every effort to complete the project. Yong Soo is working on the hardware and Gurinder is writing the codes for software
